

Report for Workshop

“Colour in the Evolvement of Children” – 27th & 28th of February 2010

One more team of Teachers has completed the basic training of the specialized workshop “Colour in the evolvement of Children”, which took place on the 27th and 28th of February 2010, in Limassol, Cyprus. A team, with so many potentials, as all the participants are ready, and fully equipped to implement all the valuable knowledge, and experience, and integrate them in their work with their students.

An innovative workshop, created by Elena Hadjigeorgiou, Colour Life Coach TM, Colour Counselor and Healer, Licensed NLP Master Practitioner, MPIWOC.

Through the questionnaires, the participants have completed at the end of their 2day training, they say:

“It was of great help, as I have leaned exercises which will help me, and my students, while I will be working with them, through the world of colour. I feel so free, and calm. I loved the practical aspect of implementing what I have learned in a classroom environment.”

“This workshop helped me a lot! All the activities, and exercises, helped me realize how colour, has such an important place in our life, and power to heal. Through this workshop, my relationship with colour, and the understanding of colour changed. I love the exercises with movement using colourful scarves. Excellent, seminar.

Congratulations Elena for following your dreams, and visions. We will be supporting you for all the positive changes.”

“This workshop helped me on a personal level, and gave me additional knowledge, to help, and communicate with children. I feel, more free, more empowered, I have clear picture of who I am, and I understand myself better now. I feel so excited to work with children. I loved the combination of the different things we have learned, and the free communication we all had as a team.”

“The workshop helped me to learn technique, which I can now implement in my work with children. The exercises in finding my therapeutic colour and releasing negative emotions helped me a lot. I feel very comfortable in using the technique we have learned in my classroom.”

“This workshop helped me set my priorities right, and set new goals. I feel refreshed, relieved from stress, and confusion. I loved the exercise of releasing my negative emotions. Everything was simply fantastic, and wonderful.”

“The workshop helped me unlock my true self, and find out what was keeping me back. Now I know ways to handle anything that does not associate with me, or anything that is bothering me. I loved the fact that, everything we have learned, and used is already within us, and it’s a perfect much with our personality. We need more time, and we need to continue and learn more, as we have already agreed. I consider myself very lucky for having this experience. This workshop, help me change a lot of things for myself. It was a great importance. It gave me the opportunity of a fresh start, for my work and a fresh beginning for my life.”

“All the activities helped me a lot, along with the comments on how I could improve as a person, able now to share everything I have learned, with my students, and people around me. I am leaving with the most positive energy. At the beginning of the workshop I felt troubled, but now I experience calmness, and I feel so certain for myself, my abilities, and my goals. I loved the relaxation techniques, and the communication we had as a team. What we have learned in this workshop is great, and I hope more people will have the opportunity to attend.”
